Writing Projects currently in process:

A three-volume academic work on the Azusa Street Mission and the revival of 1906-1909. Volume 1 will feature the life and ministry of the Mission’s pastor, the Reverend William J. Seymour. Volume 2 will feature the influence of the Mission and revival on Southern California. Volume 3 will feature the international significance of the Mission and revival. I have completed 1500 pages, with a projected length of 1800 pages.

An autobiographical work on my entry into and participation in the field of ecumenics. This is to be published by the Michael Glazier/Liturgical Press in Collegeville, MN. I hope to complete this work in 2007 or 2008.
